The Courts.

County Court has been in adjourned ession all this week and has transacted a large amount of business. A complete report of the proceedings will be given in our next issue.

Circuit Court convened last Monday with Judge Henry C. Riley, of New Madrid, presiding, he and Judge Sheppard having exchanged circuits for the term. Business is being disposed of as assigned on the docket, and we will give the disposition of the cases next week.

Exchanged Terms.

Judge J. C. Sheppard left last Saturday for New Madrid county, where he went to hold court for Judge Henry C. ritory on the Mississippi Wednesday, Riley, who came here Monday to hold after visiting his children here for a court for Judge Sheppard, the two week. He is traveling for a St. Louis gentlemen having exchanged circuits grocery house and has New Madrid, for the term. Judge Sheppard had at Pemiscot county, Mo., and Missiasippi, one time or another, been employed as attorney in several cases on the docket The branch engine got off the track in this county, and as a consequence at Naylor last Saturday evening and was disqualified from presiding during the hearing of these cases. Possibly many of our citizens of Donphan school district are not aware that our district has sustained a serious financial loss in the way of taxable property by the removal of the Doniphan Lumber Company. Quite a number of our people are moving away, decreasing our personal property values, also our enumeration. On our real estate values we are falling considerable behind last year. Altogether we are now facing one of the most serious problems in our beds. We have had to suspend work in 1905-6 will never come again.
